AWARD MESSAGE

I wanted to take a moment on World Gratitude Day to thank the CoM extended product line family for all that you do as individuals, but also for how you do it as a true One Merck team, to help us achieve our collective goals with focus, the right balance of analytics and instincts, and with a high level of collaboration. I can honestly say that I have not appreciated a team more in my many years at Merck than I appreciate our current team, more than I appreciate all of you and what you bring as individuals to make us better as a whole. Danny and Anand, I encourage you to similarly reward your teams directly if you have not already done so, I know it will mean a lot coming from you, and of course please echo my sentiments and sincere thanks to them as well.
