AWARD MESSAGE

Working From Home (WFH) situation, created by the pandemic COVID-19 outbreak has been requiring new skill sets from individuals to effectively and efficiently work remotely since this is not a familiar situation for many of us. Demonstrating ownership by rapidly responding and actively taking responsibilities with actions would be very helpful in this situation. Recently, I had an issue to access a database. I reached out to Luat Nguyen to seek any of his advice. I was pleasantly surprised with Luat's prompt response and I also was very impressed with his seamless actions to resolve the issue. In a very short time, the issue has been resolved and I also have learned a new way to access to this database. Thanks so much to Luat for his well-exemplified behavior at the WFH environment.
